

Vacancy

The British Council creates international opportunities for the people of the UK and other countries and builds trust between them worldwide. We call this cultural relations. Our work in Mauritius focuses on Education and English. The British Council is the world leader in English Language Teaching. We offer a variety of courses for young learners, adults and corporate clients at our teaching centre in Rose-Hill.

Invigilators (Part-time / Freelance)

To assist in the delivery of UK Examinations.

Minimum qualification required

- Higher School Certificate

Essential skills required

- Have good customer care skills
- Be punctual
- Be competent in IT
- Be available on short notice
- Be available to work from Monday to Saturday
- Fluency in English (IELTS 6.0 minimum)

The following behaviours will need to be demonstrated at interview stage:

Creating shared purpose, connecting with others, working together, being accountable and making it happen.

Please download the application form & role profile on www.britishcouncil.mu.

Completed applications should be emailed to recruitment@mu.britishcouncil.org.

Applications should reach us by 16.00 hours, Thursday 30 April 2015. Candidates must complete all relevant sections of the application form. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered. Only candidates shortlisted for interview will be contacted.

The successful candidates will start in May 2015.

The British Council is committed to a policy of equal equality, diversity and inclusion and welcomes applicants from all sections of the community. We work to ensure that people are not unjustifiably discriminated against on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, religion or belief, sexual orientation or any other irrelevant grounds. We guarantee an interview to disabled candidates who meet the essential criteria.

The British Council believes that all children have potential and that every child matters – everywhere in the world. The British Council affirms the position that all children have the right to be protected from all forms of abuse as set out in article 19, UNCRC 1989.

The United Kingdom's international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. We are registered in England as a charity.