

Dear Parent / Carer,

2023 Young Learner Art Competition 2023

We are excited to announce the 2023 Young Learner Art Competition.

All children between 8 – 15 years old are invited to submit their original artwork to the competition by 26 August. Winning artworks will be sent to the UK to compete for the chance to feature on promotional materials relating to the British Council's work in English and Exams.

This year's theme is: The Natural World

Participants are encouraged to be as creative with the theme as they wish.

Who can participate?

The competition is open to British Council students who are 15 years old or under on 4 September 2023. The age groups are:

- age 8 and under
- 9 – 11
- 12 – 15

When is the deadline?

Saturday 26 August 2023.

How to submit the entries?

All entries must be handed to the class teacher or to our Customer Service team (1st floor in Rose Hill Monday – Saturday or Reception at Northfields International School on Saturdays only).

Please note all entries must include:

- ✓ the original artwork
- ✓ the completed and signed Parental Permission form and Image Release form (see overleaf)
- ✓ the participant's name, age and title of the work

When will the local winners and finalists be announced?

Local finalists will be chosen for each age category. One local winner in each age category will be announced in early September 2023 and will be submitted to the global competition. All local finalists and winners will receive a prize.

What happens at the global competition level?

The global competition will be judged during September 2023 and 12 pictures will be selected to be displayed in promotional materials relating to the British Council's work in English and Exams.

For further information please contact us on general.enquiries@mu.britishcouncil.org.

With best wishes,

Matiswary Baomy

Young Learner Art Competition Co-ordinator

Parental Permission form – Young Learner Art Competition

Dear Parent / Carer,

You are entering your child's artwork to British Council Mauritius Young Learner Art Competition. If your child wins the local competition, his/her artwork will be submitted to the global competition. Before we can submit the picture, we need your consent to do so.

Please indicate your consent by filling and signing this parental permission form. Submit the form with your child's work.

The Competition

The British Council will select 12 pictures from those submitted from its global network of Teaching Centres.

If your child's work is chosen as one of the 12 winners in the global competition, his/her picture will be used in the 2023 Young Learner Art Competition calendar and may also be used on the British Council's website and in other promotional materials. By entering the competition, each participant agrees to the use of their name and their picture. Participants will retain copyright in the entry material that they submit to the British Council.

Privacy Notice

Should your child's picture be selected as one of the 12 winning pictures, we will inform you and ensure that the picture is credited appropriately. To do this, we need to collect your child's name, age and associated Teaching Centre.

This data will be used solely for the purposes of managing and administering the competition. We will keep your data for 3 months after the close of the competition.

The British Council complies with data protection law in the UK and laws in other countries that meet internationally accepted standards. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to complain to a privacy regulator. For detailed information, please refer to the privacy section of our website, www.britishcouncil.org/privacy or contact our Customer Services team.

If you are happy to continue, please complete the form overleaf and submit with your child's artwork.

With best wishes,

Matiswary Baomy,

Young Learner Art Competition Co-ordinators

As parent / guardian I confirm that:

- I have read and agree to the competition rules (available at: <https://www.britishcouncil.mu/english/children/information-parents>);
- I consent to my child's picture being entered into the 2023 British Council Young Learner's Art Competition
- I consent to my child's name to be used in association with his/her picture

I give the British Council permission to use and publish my child's picture, which was a winner in the British Council's Young Learners Art Competition 2023, on any British Council website and in other promotional materials. I give the British Council permission for these materials to be made available for free to the parents of British Council students and to other British Council contacts. I understand that no fee is or will become payable to me or my child for this usage.

Child's name

Child's age (as of 4 Sep 2023)

Teaching centre location / country

Signed by Parent / Guardian

Print name

Date

Image Release form – Young Learner Art Competition

Please read this form carefully. It sets out the terms on which you agree to the British Council taking photographs of you and/or your artwork submitted to the British Council Young Learner Art Competition 2023 and using those photographs. Please complete, sign and return this form with your child’s artwork.

Name of Student (the “Individual”):
Student ID:	Event/Project/Activity: British Council Young Learner Art Competition 2023

I hereby:

- agree to the British Council photographing me and/or my artwork submitted to the British Council Young Learner Art Competition 2023 and give permission to the British Council to use any material in the photographs where the copyright or any other rights are owned by me;
- confirm that the British Council shall be entitled to use, free of charge, the photographs made of me and/or my artwork (without having to identify me by name), in their original format or edited, adapted or altered, for the purposes of the British Council’s internal and external promotional and publicity materials and for any programmes, publications, websites, electronic publications and social media services worldwide produced by or on behalf of the British Council; and
- agree that the British Council shall be entitled to pass the photographs of me and/or my artwork, and my name, to external press and media agencies, publishers and broadcasters, and to partners and other third parties with which the British Council works, anywhere in the world, for the purposes set out in this Consent Form.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: TO BE COMPLETED WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL IS UNDER THE AGE OF 18
As the Subject’s Parent / Guardian, I hereby agree to the terms set out in this Consent Form
Name of Parent / Guardian
Signature
Tel.	Email

Your Rights: Under the UK Data Protection Legislation you have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, for which we may charge a fee, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccurate information. For more details please contact your British Council contact or the Data Protection Team: IGDisclosures@britishcouncil.org.

Data Protection Legislation means any applicable law relating to the processing, privacy and use of Personal Data, as applicable to either party or the consent granted under this Agreement, including the Directive 95/46/EC (Data Protection Directive) and/or Data Protection Act 1998 or the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR); and /or any corresponding or equivalent national laws or regulations; and any laws which implement any such laws; and any laws that replace, extend, re-enact, consolidate or amend any of the foregoing; all guidance, guidelines, codes of practice and codes of conduct issued by any relevant regulator, supervisory authority or body responsible for administering Data Protection Legislation (in each case whether or not legally binding).